TO: SHAREHOLDERS OF 6356095 CANADA INC. (FORMERLY EXCAPSA SOFTWARE INC.)

FROM: XMT LIQUIDATIONS INC., ITS COURT-APPOINTED LIQUIDATOR (THE "LIQUIDATOR")

In our last communication dated April 12, 2010 (copy attached) we advised you of the arrangement reached with Blast Off Limited ("Blast Off") whereby Blast Off would pay US $1,150,000 to the Liquidator by monthly instalments ending on May 31, 2010, plus an additional US $100,000 for costs due on June 15, 2010. Unfortunately, only US $790,000 was received from Blast Off on account of the US $1,250,000 and payments have again been suspended. The Liquidator, together with Blast Off's other major creditor, met with Blast Off's senior management to review relevant financial data and to explore alternatives for generating cash including cost reductions and improved collection efforts. The Liquidator has made it clear to Blast Off that all rights under the promissory notes and related security, including enforcement procedures, are reserved.

Every effort will be made by the Liquidator to obtain the resumption of payments as soon as possible. Shareholders will be updated as matters progress.

As recently announced, the Liquidator will pay a US $5 million capital gains dividend to registered shareholders within the next 30 days. The Liquidator has obtained a clearance certificate from Canada Revenue Agency authorizing the pending dividend and an additional US $5 million distribution. The Liquidator will consider the further distribution based on the level of payments received and committed from Blast Off over the coming months as well as the results of the ongoing tax audits.

Dated this 24th day of June, 2010.

TO : Shareholders of 6356095 Canada Inc. (formerly Excapsa Software Inc.)

FROM: XMT Liquidations Inc., its Court-appointed liquidator (the "Liquidator")

In our last communication dated January 26, 2010 (copy attached) we advised you of the suspension of payments by Blast Off Limited ("Blast Off") under the first Promissory Note and the onset of a 90 day cure expiring on March 11, 2010. Negotiations followed and culminated in an arrangement whereby Blast Off will pay US$1,150,000.00 to the Liquidator by monthly installments ending on May 31, 2010, of which US$450,000.00 has been received, plus an additional US$100,000.00 for costs due on June 15, 2010. The Liquidator has informed Blast Off that acceptance of any payments is not to be taken as a tacit forbearance nor an acceptance, renunciation, amendment or waiver of any conditions, rights or obligations. Assuming that these payments are made on time and no other defaults occur under the Promissory Notes, the Liquidator does not intend to exercise any of its rights and remedies prior to June 1, 2010.

The US$1,150,000.00, together with the US$250,000.00 paid by Blast Off earlier this year, will cover the November and December 2009 monthly installments plus $400,000.00 on account of the January 2010 installment. This will leave arrears of $2,100,000.00 owing as of May 31, 2010 (i.e. $100,000.00 for January 2010 and $2,000,000.00 for February through May 2010). There is no agreement in place with Blast Off relating to payment of this sum and, failing an agreement, the Liquidator shall be entitled to exercise its rights and remedies under the Promissory Notes and related security. The Liquidator anticipates further discussions with Blast Off and will continue to update shareholders as matters progress.

The Liquidator recently obtained a clearance certificate from Canada Revenue Agency authorizing a further distribution of up to US$10,000,000.00 to shareholders. The Liquidator hopes to make a distribution within the next 90 days, but will make this decision based on the level of payments received and committed from Blast Off up to and following May 31, 2010.

Dated this 12th day of April, 2010.
